BEWARE THIS ANIMAL SPITS!

Cause of Trouble at Olympic Park

There is a vacant place in a cage at the Zoo. —
The cage which is labelled "Beware this animal spits."

BEING an admirer of animals, perhaps I use the wrong term for the disgusting filthy alleged Soccer fan who disrupted last Saturday's Soccer game at Olympic Park by his saliva — his uncontrolled saliva and his dirty mind.

How did you feel, Mr. Spitball, as you fled across the field with the mounted police at your heels and the angry shouts of outraged spectators blasting your ears?

Did you feel heroic? Or did you feel the worm that you are? A miserable, slimy worm with filthy habits.

And the hooligans who helped you escape the punishment you deserved — I wonder if they are feeling bold and brave to-day? Perfect examples of poor sports and bad citizens.

Everyone is entitled to their own interpretation of the referee's ruling. There is nothing to stop one shouting a pungent criticism, of indulging in all the boos and yaws in the vocabulary; but there is no necessity to be dirty, filthy, and a menace to the enjoyment of every other Soccer fan because one's saliva is uncontrollable spittle.

Mob rule or misrule won't help Soccer. Every New Australian has given something valuable to Soccer by their enthusiasm, BUT their shot in the arm is cancelled by one animal who does not deserve a place in the free life found in Australia.

I know that feuds, threats, vendettas and knives in the back are part and parcel of life in the underworld overseas, but they do not belong to our way of life in Australia.

This is Australia, a fine, free country where people who spit are labelled, and they will continue to be labelled as long as I have ink in my pen.

Now, Mr. Spitter, and I speak directly to you—why did you come here?

Was it for safety, for security, for happiness?

It was? I thought so. Do you believe that by spitting at referees who, after all, are carrying out the rules of Soccer, you are achieving safety, security, and happiness?

Do you honestly believe you are helping the game you believe is the best football game in the world? If you do, we don't want you. And I speak for the thousands of New Australian fans who follow the code and respect what the V.A.S.F.A. is doing to improve Soccer in this country.

Soccer is sport's poor relation in Melbourne in the eyes of the Press. They regard it as a silly game, and the only time they take any notice of it is when some hooligan like yourself gives them the opportunity for scaring headlines.

The greatest Soccer player in the world to-day is an Englishman — a little bloke called Stanley Matthews, a player who in his entire career has never been cautioned.

A player who believes Soccer is the greatest game man can play with a football. Do you think he would have any time for a snec-tator who spits? Do you think he would come to Melbourne again if he knew we included people who expectorate at referees? Of course he wouldn't, and that goes for the scum who helped you escape from the police.

The police are there to do a job — so are the police horses; but there is a limit to patience, and if you indulge in your low and filthy habits again I doubt if you will make the fence in safety.

In Australia we have a great respect for sportsmen, but we have little for people who are unsports-

CLUB NEWS

IN friendly games with Austria-Melbourne last Saturday, both Frankston teams suffered defeat. However, some very good football was seen, and all appeared to have thoroughly enjoyed the afternoon.

After being defeated by Polonia, three of Richmond Reserve players had a second game against Prahran First Division, owing to only eight players being available. Mietz proved a very useful centre-forward, even after three hours' play. He scored two goals, and has earned another chance this week against the Colts.

Richmond Club would like to express thanks to the trainer, who leaves the Club this week. All players wish him good luck.

Richmond Club would like social games for the August 2-3 weekend. Anyone interested should phone JB 3069 (evening).

Bayswater played very constructive football in their Dockerty Cup match with Hayduk, and left few chances for their opponents. On this performance, they should beat Rosebud. Three new-comers in Bayswater are: Stan Shepherd, Jim Ashton and Phil Guy. They are from Lancashire, England, and played for Breckfield and St. Christopher Football Clubs. Incidentally, they are the first English players in our German combination. Just the same they like it!

Coburg United had a keenly contested game with Moorabbin. They gained an early advantage with a quick goal, and did not give their opponents a chance to settle down. They led 2-0 until the closing minutes, when Moorabbin scored and fought hard for the equaliser, but Coburg defence held firm. Coburg players are now enjoying Thursday night training as the ground is now partly floodlit, and players are able to get much-needed ball practice. They hope to improve their League position with a win over I.C.I.

Yarraville Bison had a very even game against Hollandia, and although the forwards had many chances of scoring they could only manage 1-0 at half-time. After the interval, Hollandia applied pressure, but Yarraville held them off. The Club is very proud of its hard-working Committee, which had another successful Cabaret Dance on July 4. The Club is happy to report that it has no financial worries from now on.

FOOTSCRAY CAPRI DANCE.

Footscray Capri Soccer Club will stage another of their dances at the Footscray Town Hall tonight, from 8 p.m. to 11.45 p.m.

Tickets may be obtained at the Capri Espresso Lounge, 299 Barkly St., Footscray.

Don't miss this one — just telephone MW 2485. Only 5/- per ticket. Bring your own refreshments.

A NICE GESTURE.

THE management of St. Moritz and Hakoah Ice Hockey Section have invited Hakoah Soccer Club and friends to attend the match, Hakoah v. Demons, at St. Moritz to-morrow, Sunday.

The face-off is at 2.55 p.m., and will be televised over Channel 9.

Player Smith, of St. Kilda, was suspended for four playing Saturdays as from and including July 12.

The following Committee members were appointed Chairmen of Selectors for the various age groups for the visit to Yallourn later this season:—

The Under 17 State team will visit N.S.W. in September. Thirteen players will be selected from the following: 15: Fladley (South Melbourne); Dobson (Sunshine City); Legge (Essendon); Perkins (Brighton); Kent (Preston) or Farrell (Fairfield); Lightfoot (St. Kilda) or Hore (Box Hill); Keys (Box Hill); Fritchard (Brighton); Smith (Brighton); Culbard (Sunshine City); Stevenson (St. Kilda); Pugh (South Melbourne); and Vote (Box Hill).

Because of increased competitions, another six trophies are urgently required by the Junior Committee of the V.A.S.F.A. Any intending donor,

To the Editor

"Soccer News" Under Fire

SIR.—As a regular listener to "Soccer Round Up" on 3XY every Saturday night, I heard Mr. John Oilphant and Mr. Glen Millen's comment on letters they get from Soccer fans asking them for accounts of League games in other Divisions and to give us reports of World Cup games and International games that are being held from time to time elsewhere.

I can well understand the reason these two gentlemen gave as to why these suggestions could not be included in the said programme, but I believe that what we lack in "Soccer Round Up" could be remedied through other avenues. I have in mind "Soccer News." Every Soccer fan is quite disappointed by the lack of time on the radio and more disappointed still at the lack of Soccer information in the daily papers. Consequently, they wait ardently for "Soccer News," but most Soccer supporters are quite dissatisfied and disappointed about "Soccer News." A lot of people claim that when they buy "Soccer News," they pay 1/- for scarcely eight pages of absolutely nothing!

For example, why couldn't we have accounts of Soccer matches of the State League held during the previous weekend and shorter accounts of matches from other League Divisions? Why couldn't "Soccer News" include results and League tables and news of British Soccer? I admit that these might be a bit late, but it is better to be late than not at all.

Why couldn't we have accounts of International games, and for next year an account of games being held between the different countries taking part in the World Cup?

And, above all, why couldn't we have at least the position of teams in Leagues of other States? I make a stress about the latter because there are quite a few people putting money in English Soccer Pools. Now, whoever contributes to Soccer Pools is in the dark with no guide at all when it comes to picking teams which would probably be winners or drawn games from among teams in other States when he wouldn't have at least League tables of these teams taking part in Soccer Pools. And this accounts also why is it so important to have accounts of games and reviews of British Soccer and League tables.—Yours, etc.,

J. SCHEMBRI.

11 Evelyn Street,
Brunswick, N.10.
July 8, 1958.

[Thanks for the letter. Each week we feature: A leading article; Sunday

International Competition news; Northern Victorian Association news; Teams for the Week; Round Up from the U.K.; Olympic Park Fixtures; Junior Notes; Junior Results; Senior Notes; Senior Results; Letters to the Editor; Club News; Fixtures for Two Weeks; Technical Schools Data; Senior League Ladders and Junior League Ladders — so we cannot agree there is nothing in the paper. "The Sporting Globe" gives a full coverage of Interstate scores and tables each Wednesday. We could include more by increasing our paper by another four pages, but, then, we meet the difficulty of increased costs. We do not want to charge more than 1/-.—Ed. "Soccer News."]

Gayer Colour for "Soccer News"

SIR.—In my opinion, "Soccer News" isn't a publication that attracts the mind of the individual. What I have in mind is that we could have more pages in "Soccer News," and we could have it printed on gayer paper. We could have a good black and white and clear cover, and a picture of different teams, with a history of the particular Club. This could begin with teams picked from the State League and carried on through the other two senior Divisions. When that avenue was exhausted we could have pictures of local Soccer stars, together with a biography of each one of those pictured.

With regard to the broadcasting time, I hope the Association strives to obtain more time for "Soccer Round Up" or more Soccer programmes, either on 3XY or other stations along with the present two — one on 3XY on Saturday and the other on 3KZ on Friday.

I hope also that the Association will strive to get Soccer results of at least the State League read out along with other sporting news when the news of the day is being read out on Saturday nights, and possibly with the early news on Sunday mornings. After all, news from other sporting spheres, with the exception of Soccer, is always being read.

To put the above suggestions into effect might entail an increase in the price of "Soccer News," and, provided the increase is reasonable, I am sure that the Soccer public would be agreeable to the increase. Hoping that due consideration of these suggestions be made.—Yours, etc.,

"DISAPPOINTED SOCCER FAN."

[The cost of colouring paper is prohibitive. Photos, including cost of blocks, also increase the price. Sufficient sponsors have not been obtained to permit further broadcasting times. Results of several Divisions are given on Saturday evenings on Station 3XY. Station 3UZ gives the State League scores; also Station 3DB. We reiterate that an increase in price would not be to our advantage.—Ed. "Soccer News."]
